Minutes of the First Meeting

Faculty of Music

The first meeting of the Faculty of Music of the University was held in the Grafton Chapter House, June 25th, 1918, at 11 a.m.

Present:

Dr. Robert Falconer, President
Dean Vogt
Mr. Fricker
Dr. Ham
Mr. Howe
Mr. Willan

The President addressed the members on the work of the Faculty.

It was moved by Mr. Howe, seconded by Dr. Ham, and carried that the lectures should be delivered by the members of the Faculty during the months of January, February, and March.

The arrangements for the December Local Examinations were deferred until the meeting of the Faculty to be called in September.

Mr. Howe requested and it was agreed that the following changes be made in the history of music for the undergraduate course for the degree of Bachelor of Music:

Page 87: For First Year, Number 3, substitute:
3. The history of music from 1600 onwards.

For Second Year, Number 6, substitute:
6. History of music. In the second year special periods and the rise and influence of certain schools will be taken up.

For Final Year, Number 6, substitute:

6. A general survey of the History of Music from the earliest time to the present. (Text Book recommended, Donavite: Heintz: History of Music.)

On motion of Mr. William seconded by Mr. Smith it was recommended that for the next biennial examination of the final year any one of Beethoven's Third, Fourth, Fifth, or Seventh Symphonies be accepted in 1918-19.

On motion of Mr. Smith it was agreed that the changes necessary on the present curricula in order to make it conform with the Calendars of the other Faculties of the university and the preparation of an insert embodying the new prescription of work be left to Mr. Moore and the Senate.

The following fees were recommended:
- Registration and Lecture fees for each year: five dollars each.
- For occasional students a fee of $2 for each subject with a maximum of $5 for all the subjects.

The Faculty ordered that the recommendations regarding fees and changes in the calendar be transmitted to the Senate.
