Music Makes the World Go Round

Singing Connected with U of T

Let not the world say: I have no song; neither let the sons of men say: I am not mindful of thee. Sing unto the Lord a new song; for he hath done marvelous things. Let the voice of joy be heard in the city of righteousness. Let the people praise God's name. Let the Lord be magnified among all the earth.
null
Opera Production Fund

The Family of Christ Campaign

Raising Our Significance

Memorial Fellowship

Hasid Carter
The picture shows a page from a book or document with text and images. The text is not legible due to the resolution and angle of the image. The page appears to be discussing a topic related to science, possibly involving data or diagrams. The images on the page include a diagram of a circuit or electronic component and what seems to be a flowchart or organizational chart.
Voice Studies Chair in Residence

By Andrew Holmes

Dr. Andrew Holmes has been appointed to the position of Chair in Voice Studies. This appointment is in recognition of his significant contributions to the field of voice studies and his dedication to the ongoing development of the program. Dr. Holmes brings a wealth of experience and expertise to his new role, having held various leadership positions in the past, including as the Director of the Voice Studies program. His appointment is a testament to the university's commitment to excellence in education and research.

Dr. Holmes's research interests include vocal pedagogy, voice science, and the psychological aspects of singing. He is particularly known for his work on the development of voice evaluation and treatment programs, which have been widely adopted by singers and voice teachers around the world.

In his new role, Dr. Holmes will be responsible for overseeing the curriculum, faculty development, and the overall direction of the Voice Studies program. He will work closely with the department to ensure that the program remains at the forefront of voice studies and continues to meet the needs of students and the broader community.

Dr. Holmes is a highly regarded figure in the field of voice studies and we are excited to welcome him to his new position. His leadership will undoubtedly enrich the Voice Studies program and contribute significantly to the university's mission of fostering excellence in education and research.

Faculty Notes

Tremendous contributions from the fantastic teachers and students at Voice and Performance.
Distinguished Visitor Awards

More than Practice, Practice, Practice...

Student Notes
You Are Noteworthy

In Memoriam:

* Michael 1969
  * Mohammad Ali 1969
  * William 1970
  * Jennifer 1970
  * Elizabeth 1971
* John 1972
  * Karen 1972
  * Mike 1973
  * David 1974
  * Linda 1974

Student Awards Reception

Memories of Convocation: June 2001